PINELAND BANK WELCOMES BRAD MORRIS

(Alma, Georgia) - Pineland Bank announced that Bradley Morris recently joined the bank's St Marys, Camden County, Georgia banking team as a Commercial Lender.

"Pineland Bank is pleased to announce that Brad Morris has joined our team in the Camden Market. Brad has lived in our community for many years and looks forward to working with his friends and clients to build new relationships and a stronger community. Please welcome Brad and Sadie to the Pineland family," said John Minor, Market Executive in Camden County.

"Brad brings a wealth of banking knowledge and experience to our bank which will help grow our staff and better serve our customers in Camden County area. He is a passionate banker, and that energy is contagious to be around. We are proud and excited to have him join our banking family in Kingsland and St. Mary's," said Al D. Ross, President & CEO of Pineland Bank.

Brad is originally from South Carolina but has been living in Camden County for the past 16 years. He is a graduate of Georgia Southern University with a bachelor's degree in Psychology. He began his banking career in 2006 with Regions Bank in Jacksonville, FL and later went to Fidelity Bank who merged with Ameris Bank where he worked for five years. Aside from banking, Brad has worked as a financial advisor and where he developed a unique insight into the financial industry, which led him into banking.

Brad and his wife Sadie have two daughters ages Finley age 13 and Riley age 11. They also have two Boykins Spaniels, Clyde, and Clemmie. In his spare time, Brad enjoys the outdoors, hunting, fishing, golfing, kayaking, and boating with his family. He also enjoys drawing and painting wildlife art.
