COLONY BANK NAMES MANDY SUDDUTH TO CORDELE COMMUNITY BOARD

CORDELE, GA. (July 11, 2022) – Colony Bank today announced that Mandy Sudduth has been named to the Cordele Community Board.

Mandy currently serves as the Controller and Manager for Griffin Lumber Company, where she has been employed for 22 years. Additionally, Mandy holds the positions of Property Manager for Security Mini Storage and Vice President of Griffin Grading & Concrete. She is a lifelong resident of Crisp County and currently resides at Lake Blackshear with her husband of 20 years, Jay, and their three children. She is actively involved with her church, Ebenezer Baptist Church, in Cordele and is a big supporter of Crisp Academy.

Commenting on the announcement, Jeffrey Hester, Market President, said, “We’re excited to welcome Mandy to our community board and look forward to her fresh perspective. In addition to her community involvement and extensive management experience, Mandy brings a wealth of knowledge in logistics and the lumber industry which will help us with business development activities. I would like to thank Will Griffin for his service to our community board and am honored to continue building the relationship with Griffin Lumber Company with the addition of Mandy.”

Members of our Cordele Community Board also include Bob Evans, Jeffrey Hester, Charles Clark, Jonathan Sinyard, Lee Perlis, and Rod McLeod.
