Bank of Lee County and Bank of Terrell become Georgia Community Bank

Georgia Community Bancorp
PO Box 389
Dawson, GA. 39842

On August 5, 2019, Bank of Lee County and Bank of Terrell will change their names to Georgia Community Bank (GCB). New Name, Same Faces, Same Commitment.

Bank of Terrell operates as an affiliate bank of a Bank Holding Company, Georgia Community Bancorp, Inc., which has offices in Dawson, Georgia. The Bank of Lee County has been a division of the Bank of Terrell since it opened in 2002. Along with the name change you will see new logo, signs, website, and letterhead. Our employees will be the same as will our commitment to our community and customers. One of the exciting aspects of this change is an upgrade in technology and more products. GCB will have a new mobile app., mobile capture, pay to pay and have the ability to be even more responsive to our customers.

May 1, 1936, Bank of Terrell opened for business in the banking house on Main Street, Dawson, Georgia in the space formerly occupied by the Dawson National Bank. There are two additional affiliate banks in the Holding Company, Commercial State Bank in Donalsonville, Georgia and The Citizens State Bank of Taylor County in Reynolds, Georgia.
