

Osborne Selected for Leadership Gwinnett Class of 2020

WATKINSVILLE, June 24, 2019 – Oconee State Bank announces Josh Osborne has been selected for Leadership Gwinnett Class of 2020.

Leadership Gwinnett has announced the 42 applicants who were picked to participate in its 35th annual class — the class of 2020 — this past week.

The program lasts nine months and gives participants a chance to examine issues facing the county and discuss them while also building relationships with county and community leaders. Officials said participants in the class of 2020 come from a variety of backgrounds, including the nonprofit, business, health, education, legal and government fields.

“On behalf of the Leadership Gwinnett Board of Trustees and Foundation Board of Directors congratulate each new class member on your selection and we look forward to your shared leadership and outreach,” Leadership Gwinnett Foundation Board of Directors Chairwoman June Sweat said in a statement.
