

Title: Tim Lyons of Mauldin & Jenkins, LLC, Appointed to AICPA State and Local Government Expert Panel

Content:

Atlanta, GA- March 22- Mauldin & Jenkins, LLC, a leading provider of assurance, tax, consulting and advisory services, is proud to announce Tim Lyons, Partner-in-Charge of the firm's Columbia office, has been appointed as a member of the AICPA's State and Local Government Expert Panel, beginning May 2021.

The Expert Panel exists to serve the needs of AICPA members on financial reporting matters as well as audit and attest matters relevant to audits of state and local government financial statements. It also works closely with the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) by analyzing exposure documents and various proposals that impact state and local governments.

As a member, Tim will help bring together knowledgeable parties in the state and local government industry to deliberate and come to agreement on key state and local government issues.

Tim is a Partner in the Governmental Practice of Mauldin & Jenkins, working with state and local government agencies and institutions of higher education throughout the Southeast. Services provided to clients include traditional audit and attest engagements, transaction and advisory services, and internal control and process consulting. Tim is also a member of the Firm's Assurance Committee.

Tim is involved in a variety of state and national organizations – both to support client industries and the community at large. He is a graduate of the AICPA's Leadership Academy (Class of 2012) and is a regular speaker on state/local government topics around the Southeast. He has served as a director for various organizations and currently is a member of the board for Children's Trust of South Carolina.

Please join us in congratulating Tim on this achievement.
