

South Georgia Banking Company Welcomes Erika Culpepper

South Georgia Banking Company welcomes Erika Culpepper, new Senior Vice President of our 2nd Street branch in Tifton. Culpepper, who brings a wealth of banking knowledge to the SGBC team, is the latest addition the bank's leadership team.

With over 20 years of experience in banking, Culpepper's expertise lies in loan operations, risk management, and credit administration management. "As the bank continues to grow, I hope to make that growth seamless," Culpepper says.

"Erika's extensive experience and her desire to make a difference, make her a perfect fit for our organization and our customers," said Sam McCard, president, South Georgia Banking Company. "Our commitment is to bring staff members on board who share our vision and understand the positive impact local banking has on the communities we serve."

Culpepper and her husband Jason have two children, Jason and Kinsey Culpepper. They attend First Baptist Church of Tifton and enjoy being a part of a family-oriented community.

Stop by our 2nd Street branch today to meet Erika and say hello to rest of the team! Learn more about South Georgia Banking Company and our locations in Tifton, Moultrie, Ashburn, Cordele, Vienna, and Sylvester at SGBOnline.com
