

LOCAL CPA AND SENIOR ACCOUNTANT, TIFFANY CARTER, JOINS OCONEE STATE BANK COMMUNITY ADVISORY COMMITTEE

WATKINSVILLE, February 21, 2020 - Oconee State Bank (OTCQX: OSBK) announces the addition of local CPA and Senior Accountant, Tiffany Carter, to its Oconee Area Community Advisory Committee.

“We are very excited to have Tiffany as part of our Community Advisory Committee,” said President and CEO Neil Stevens. “Tiffany’s experience and unique perspective will provide great insight to our team as we strive to achieve our vision of being essential to the lives, businesses, and communities we serve.”

Tiffany S. Carter, CPA, is a Senior Accountant with Williams and Guined (WAG CPA) accounting firm, and has over 20 years of tax and accounting experience. Prior to joining WAG CPA, she worked with several Fortune 500 companies in Accounting and Information Technology. Tiffany has experience in several practice areas, including individual and corporate income tax, partnerships, trusts, and not for profit entities.

Tiffany resides in Oconee and enjoys playing basketball with her husband, Montez, and their three children, Hannah (15), Laila (13), and Myles (11).

“I am honored to have the opportunity to work with the leadership of such a great, long-standing organization in our community,” said Carter. “Neil and the entire team at Oconee State Bank continue to strive to make a lasting impact, and I look forward to working diligently to support that effort.”
