Greater Community Bank Offers Government Furlough Solutions

If you or someone you know is a federal government employee and has been affected by the government shutdown, we're here to help. Greater Community Bank is pleased to offer solutions specifically for federal government employees in need of assistance during the shutdown. Take advantage of one of our government furlough relief solutions:

➤ C.A.R.E. Line of Credit – Credit Assistance and Relief for Furloughed Employees

If you are experiencing a furlough from your federal government employer or not receiving pay while working during the government shutdown, Greater Community Bank is offering a special line of credit at 0.00% APR* for 90 days with no origination fee or collateral requirement.

➤ GCB Sprint Loan*

If you need more cash without the wait, GCB Sprint loans help you pay for urgent costs with same-day financing and no collateral requirement. Borrow up to $40,000 at competitive rates.

➤ Payment deferment on existing loans

During the government furlough, you may be able to defer payments on your existing Greater Community Bank loans with no fee. Contact your account officer to discuss your current payments.

➤ Waiving of early CD withdrawal penalties

“Greater Community Bank is committed to doing the right thing for our customer,” said David Lance, President & CEO of Greater Community Bank. “We understand the financial pressure that many of our customers who serve our nation are now facing, and we are here to help.”
