John McNair Named Board of Regents of Barrett School of Banking

John McNair, President & CEO Community Bankers Association of Georgia (CBA), has been named to the Board of Regents for the Barret School of Banking.

The Barret School of Banking is a non-profit independent school created by and governed by a Board of Regents, whose members are executives from banks and other firms involved with the financial services industry. The mission of the School is to provide an adult learning experience for the career-oriented individual in commercial banking or a related financial services industry business. The school includes a one-week session each May, where students are in residence for 40-plus hours of classroom instruction. The 47th Annual Graduate Session of the Paul W. Barret, Jr. School of Banking will be held May 19-24, 2019 at Christian Brothers University in Memphis, TN.

Mr. McNair joined CBA as interim President & CEO on October 15, 2018, after a 14-year career with Independent Community Bankers of America (ICBA). He assumes the full President & CEO role November 1, 2018.

Mr. McNair graduated from the University of Delaware with a Bachelor of Arts in Economics. He also holds a master's degree in Human Resources Management from Wilmington University in Delaware. Prior to ICBA, John worked for a variety of firms serving the community banking industry.

About Community Bankers Association of Georgia

CBA was founded in 1969 by a group of Georgia community bankers to protect the political interests of locally owned community banks. Representing approximately 150 community banks and over 200 associate member companies, CBA offers services in four distinct areas: political affairs; education; products & services; and, networking. For more information about the CBA, visit www.cbaofga.com or call (770) 541-4490.
